What are Monroe Covenant Keepers?

Monroe Covenant Keepers or “MC Keepers” for short, are churches and individuals who commit to supporting Monroe Camp and Retreat Center by praying regularly for the center’s ministry and providing support with talents and financial gifts.

To become a Covenant Keeper, individuals and families are asked to contribute $100 or more per year in unrestricted funds. Covenant churches are asked to financially support MCRC with a gift of at least $1 per church member.

How else can Covenant Keepers support MCRC?

- Attending events and retreats at MCRC, or using the facilities of MCRC for congregational events
- “People Power” - organizing and/or participating in Work Days
- Telling members of your congregation about MCRC or inviting our Director to share at your church
- Remembering Monroe Camp and Retreat Center in your long-range planning
- Donating items on the MCRC “Wish List”

If you are not a “MC Keeper,” we hope you’ll consider joining us in this wonderful ministry to children and adults in North Carolina and beyond. If your church is not a Covenant Keeper Congregation, please talk with your Pastor, or Mission or Finance Committee and ask them to consider joining MCRC in this covenant relationship.

If you or your church would like to become a Covenant Keeper or you have questions about this or any other ministry of MCRC, contact the center to see how you can help, we would love to speak with you or your congregation.

God said, “This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations.” - Genesis 9:12
