A Message From Our Director

Each summer at Camp Monroe feels like a new chapter in an incredible story – and 2026 is shaping up to be our best one yet! We're so excited for another season filled with laughter, adventure, and moments that bring campers closer to God, nature, and each other.

This year, we're expanding programs, welcoming new campers, and building on the energy and growth we've seen over the past few years. Whether it's your first summer or your fifth, there's something new waiting for everyone – from the friendships formed in cabins to the memories made around the campfire.

Thank you for being part of what makes Camp Monroe such a special place. We can't wait to see you this summer and share in all the fun, faith, and adventure that's ahead!

Best,

Gene Janer

AGES 13-17

Camp Monroe's counselors-in-training program is more than just a training ground for future camp counselors; it is a transformative experience that nurtures young leaders, fosters personal growth, and instills the skills necessary to create meaningful connections with children. With their newfound knowledge and enthusiasm, CITs are ready to embark on their journey as role models, mentors, and positive influencers in the lives of campers, making Camp Monroe an unforgettable experience for all involved.

Angel Tree and Camp

Angel Tree camping is an invitation for children of incarcerated parents to get away from their daily challenges and experience the love of Jesus at Camp Monroe.

Angel Tree Partnership at Camp

We are honored to partner with Angel Tree Ministries, a program that provides life-changing opportunities for children with incarcerated parents. Through their generous scholarship program, these children, along with their siblings or other children in their household, can attend camp free of charge.

As one of the largest Angel Tree partner camps in the nation, we have witnessed the incredible impact this ministry has on campers and their families. Children rediscover joy-filled play and make new lasting friendships. Many of these campers have grown to become leaders in our camp community, transitioning from campers to counselors-in-training (CITs) and eventually joining our staff.

This partnership, supportive environment where children can grow in confidence, build meaningful connections, and experience God's love. We are deeply grateful for Angel Tree Ministries' dedication to transforming lives and allowing us to play a part in their vital work.

Omega

Alpha & Omega is an integral part of the Camp Monroe experience. Campers are divided into two teams that compete in games and challenges throughout the week to earn points. While the competition is fun and exciting, our ultimate goal is to teach campers good sportsmanship, teamwork, and Christ-like character—celebrating effort, encouragement, and respect.
